

Haiku

A haiku poem is a Japanese poem that has three lines. The first line has five syllables, the second line has seven syllables, and the third line has five syllables. Please enjoy the haiku poems written by our class.

Snow

by Luke

The snow flakes will melt
And it melts on my fingers
It will snow again.

Spring

by Yatin

Pretty flowers will grow
Busy bees flying around
Green grass is growing.

Beautiful Snow

by Nakai

There was snow falling
On a pretty winter day
Then the sun came out.

Water

by Abigail

Icy, cold, and wet
Sparkling in a wetland
Frogs jump in the water.

Winter
by Caroline

Walking through white snow
Everything is beautiful
Cold winds blow the snow

Winter
by Hannah

White snow all around
Cold, freezing winds blow by me
Pretty snowflakes fall.

Deserts
by Christina

The desert is hot
It has lots of cactuses
Snakes, bobcats, and owls.

Fall
by Eamon

The leaves fly around
Orange and red fluttering down
Fall is beautiful.

The Rainforest

by Mary

Frogs croaking loudly
Birds singing beautiful songs Turtles swimming by.

Fall

by Sarah

Leaves fall from the trees
Leaves come in pretty colors
Orange, red, brown, and green.

Forests

by Benjamin

Trees are beautiful
Growing tall toward the bright sun
Waving in the wind.

The Beautiful Dolphin

by Ciara

A small gray dolphin
Loves to swim in the sea
She has shiny skin.

Winter
by Michael

Cold, wet, icy snow
Snowflakes fall from the sky
Snow is really bright.