

The Crazy Leprechaun by Eamon

Bob and Crazy Joe woke up one day. They went in the backyard and saw that everything was smashed. Bob saw the leprechaun. He had orange hair and an orange beard. He had a green suit, a hat with a golden shamrock, a pipe in his mouth, and dark green eyes like shamrocks. He had a white tie and golden shoes. They tried to catch the leprechaun so they could get his gold.

The leprechaun ran after Bob and Crazy Joe with his eighteen foot, two ton giant hammer with rubber duckies at the top. Crazy Joe pulled a sword out of his pocket and fought the leprechaun. The leprechaun hit Joe in the butt. Crazy Joe falls down. Bob jumps up and knocks the leprechaun's eighteen foot, two ton hammer out of his hands. The leprechaun runs all the way to Canada. Crazy Joe and Bob arrive in Canada. The leprechaun is sitting on a bench. Crazy Joe and Bob sneak behind the bench. They get rope, throw it, and catch the leprechaun. The leprechaun uses his feet to do karate and kicks them down. He runs to a huge mountain and hides in a cave. Crazy Joe and Bob follow his footprints to the cave and they see his shadow.

The leprechaun says, "I give up." Crazy Joe and Bob say, "We give up, too." Crazy Joe asks the leprechaun if they can have some shiny gold, shiny as the sun. "I guess" the leprechaun says. "I was going to California and fell out of the plane and fell into your backyard. I left my gold there." "Let's go to California first," Bob and Crazy Joe said. They arrived in California. "Let's surf," the leprechaun said. Bob, Crazy Joe, and the leprechaun go surfing in the Pacific Ocean. The leprechaun does a 360, and then Crazy Joe and Bob do 360s too. After that they go to a water park. The leprechaun goes a straight down waterslide and Crazy Joe and Bob go on a toilet bowl slide.

The leprechaun, Bob and Crazy Joe go to their back yard. The leprechaun gives them some gold. Now the leprechaun has to go home. Crazy Joe and Bob drive him to the airport. The leprechaun goes on the plane back to Ireland.

The Sneaky Little Leprechaun by Ciara

One lovely afternoon, I was playing in my backyard with my dog. The sun was shining so bright. We had just eaten lunch. When I was about to get on my swing, I saw a tiny man with a long orange beard. He was wearing a green jacket and white pants. He had orange shoes and a green top hat. Everything turned green. I went to pick him up but he bit my fingers. I said to him, "Why are you here?" He said "I hid my gold in your backyard." I asked him where and he told me that he cannot tell me.

My dog and I went to look for his pot of gold. Soon I noticed it was 2:00 p.m. We had started at 12:30 p.m. My mom asked me if I wanted ice cream. I had to bring the leprechaun inside. He wanted all my ice cream and he got it. Then he started to take things out of my cupboards. He drank all of the milk and he spilled flour. I tried to stop him and he sprayed water all over me and the kitchen. He grabbed my dog and bit his tail.

We went back outside and he ripped out my mom's plants. I tried to stop him but I couldn't. Then he saw a toad and he start to chase it. Finally I picked up the leprechaun and told him to tell me where he hid the pot of gold. He told me to put him down and he would tell me, but when I did, he ran away. I chased him all the way to Wal-Mart. When he saw me, he ran to the back of the store. He knocked all the fruit off of the shelf. He ran around the store about twenty times.

I finally caught him when he was about to take all of the clothes off of the racks. I put him in my pocket and ran home. I set him down next to my dog and he climbed up a tree. I got him down by making a fake pot of gold and saying I found his gold. When he came down, I put a box on him. I finally got him to stop fooling around. He told me where his treasure was and we all shared it because it was chocolate. The chocolate was a sweet as pie. It was the best chocolate I ever had.

The Leprechaun
by Michael Jarvi

It was one fall day when I got up. I looked out my window and saw a small figure. He sparkled so bright from the sun, I could not see him that good. I didn't have time to go outside because we were getting ready to go on vacation. I went into my bathroom to brush my teeth. I knew my suitcase was open. When I looked back it was closed. Once I got to the airport, I met my friend Luke. Luke was going to Hawaii, too. Once I got to the hotel, I opened up my suit case and I screamed. It was the leprechaun. I ripped my clothes out of my suitcase and shut my suitcase. The leprechaun was still in there. I threw it out the window and shut the window tight.

I sighed, went to brush my teeth, and went to sleep. The next morning, I woke up at seven am sharp. Then I turned over and there was the leprechaun next to me. He said, "Good morning to me." I did not scream this time. I would wake up everybody else. Then I jumped out of bed and wrapped him up in the sheets and put him in my backpack. My backpack was shaking. The leprechaun must be trying to get out. My backpack almost fell off. How can I get rid of the leprechaun?

I then ran back to the hotel and emptied the leprechaun out of my backpack. He tumbled out like a bowling ball. I said, "Why are you here and what do you want?" He said his name was Lucky and he has no friends. I said, "I will be your friend." "All you had to say was, "Will you be my friend?" Then the leprechaun said, "You would not listen to me because you kept trapping me." I said I was sorry about that. He said it was OK. Then we were friends and he asked me if I would like twelve million gold coins. We had to follow the rainbow. I saw his gold coins. There were one billion coins! So when we got back to my house, we had a party. Then the leprechaun and I were really good friends

To The Future by Hannah

It was a sunny spring morning. Megan, Lisa, and baby Emma were playing ball outside. Megan saw something different. It was a big machine. There were a lot of colors in the middle. Megan went up to it. Emma crawled up to and fell in. "Oh, no," we said. "We better go after her." We climbed in and we saw a lot of cars and heard music playing. The houses were hovering in the air. Robots were gardening and cleaning the houses. Emma was crawling to a robot that had black hair and red eyes. She was scary, but Emma liked her. Then we went into the house. Wow! The house was shiny and people were sitting down at a shiny table. The table was hovering in the air, too. It was amazing. They asked us if we wanted dinner. Of course we said, "Yes!" We had brockjell. It had broccoli in the middle and jello around it. They showed us the dish before we ate it through a tube. Then we spent the night. It was awesome! In the morning, we had eggsauce for breakfast. It was in a tube and we squeezed it into our mouths.

When we were ready to leave we saw the robot with red eyes and said, "Hi." Then she charged right at us and we ran as fast a cheetah. Lisa stumbled, fell down, and flipped three times. Megan said, "This is not the time to be stumbling." Emma was going very slow, so Megan picked her up. We jumped back through the time machine. What? What? Nothing happened. "On no, we are trapped here." "Run! Run! The robot is coming," Lisa shouts. What are we going to do? We cannot stay at that house again! We hid in the near by bushes. How are we going to get back to 2009? "This is a problem," Lisa says. "You think?" Megan says. We were in the bushes for the whole night. We woke up and tried one more time to jump through the time machine.

Later that day, we saw a robot with a hat on. I think she knew we were in trouble. She said, "Come." We went over and she gave us a hat. We then put it on. The robot left and we looked at the hat. It said, "Magic hat. Use only for emergencies!" "Make a wish," I said. "Then it will come true." One, two, three. Poof! We were back in 2009. "Yes! Yes!" we shouted. We jumped in excitement.

Hill Billy Bob and the Cattle by Mary

One day, I was on a walk and I tripped over something. It was the color of fog. I tried picking it up but it was too heavy. There was one big window in the front, but most of it was made of gray metal. I went inside and saw black leather seats, a lot of buttons and a big screen. By accident, I hit a button and when I got out, I was in Texas. A man and a lady greeted me. Their names were Hill Billy Bob and Rosie Posie. They had a pet duck. Their duck's name was Omellet. Omellet was as white as a snowball. Omellet had a little cowboy hat! Omellet did the Hokey Pokey when I said "Hi!" The Texas ground was rough and hard. There was a light breeze in the air. Hill Billy Bob had a reddish beard and brown hair, and was about six feet tall. Rosie Posie was five feet tall and had yellow hair.

They told me that they had a problem. Their problem was that they didn't know how to catch the cattle that wandered around. We tried jumping on them and we tried saying STOP! That definitely didn't work! They nearly ran over us after that! We even did a puppy day face, but that didn't work. It always works. I didn't know what happened. Those cattle just don't have a heart! We went inside a general store and had dinner. When we came out, the cattle were gone! It was getting dark and Hill Billy Bob got so scared and screamed like a girl! It was so funny. We heard some wolves howl and Hill Billy Bob Screamed again. This time it was getting old. We looked all over, but there were no cattle to be found. Omellet tripped over a rock and jumped up quick and said, "Quack!" I said "We have to find them and figure out how to get them back!"

Later that night, it was getting darker and everyone was getting scared. The moon was going down and Rosie Posie saw a bear. He was a black grizzly bear with sharp pointed teeth. He is charging right at us. I think he wants to eat us! Right in that moment, Omellet jumped right in my hands. He sees a fox and goes after it. Finally, we see a sign that says: Welcome to Austin, Texas where every one is your friend! Hill Billy Bob thought he saw cattle and he did! We all did the happy dance. We all walked away thinking they were following us, but they weren't. Hill Billy Bob screamed, "Come on you big butts!" and one of the cattle charged at him! "Haahhhh," he screamed, and quickly ran away. Rosie Posie saw a rope and threw it. Then Hill Billy Bob nudged her and said "It worked!" "They got all the cattle roped up and we were on our way home, when we got back to Houston, Texas. I said, "Good-bye" and I went back into the time machine and ended back in my bedroom. I told my mom about it, but she said I was dreaming.

The Leprechaun

By Caroline

While I was taking my dogs out on a Saturday morning, I saw a leprechaun in my backyard. He wore a green hat and a green suit. The leprechaun was as little as a bunny. I got very scared and ran to get my Mom and Dad, but they didn't believe me. Later, I went outside again, but the leprechaun had disappeared. All night, I was wondering where the leprechaun lived. So when all my family was asleep, I got my robe on and got my flashlight and went searching in my backyard. I found him sleeping behind my pool. I was happy he didn't wake up or else I would scream. He opened his eyes and put one finger over his lips. He told me not to tell anybody about him, and he would give me some gold. Suddenly, he disappeared again.

Two days have passed but still no leprechaun. I wonder if he went back home to Ireland to see his family. On a Friday afternoon, I invited my friend Sarah over to sleep over. Before we went to sleep I took Sarah into my creek to search for the leprechaun. Finally, we had luck after searching for four hours. But there was a problem because the leprechaun didn't look like himself. He was really mad. His face was red and he had his hands on his hips. He looked like he was ready to explode.

We had to get away from the leprechaun. We started running but we were trapped and he was getting closer. We needed air so we stopped and I said, "I'm sorry I brought Sarah". His face was not red any longer. After I said sorry, he gave me a bear hug. Then he said here is your gold and told me he is going back to Ireland. When I got the gold, I was really excited, but sad that the leprechaun is going back to Ireland.

The Museum

By Christina

It was a beautiful morning. The bus arrived at school. Then we left for the museum. When we got at the museum there were fossils of dinosaurs and the largest blue diamond. My friend Mary said to me, "This museum is cool." My other friend said to me she likes the largest blue diamond the best. It was time for lunch. We ate outside and saw a rattlesnake called Rattle. We also saw a king cobra. It has no name. Everyone was having a great time. There was a zoo, but there were only snakes and bugs.

All of a sudden, my friends and I heard a dinosaur. Hannah screamed because we were in a room with the T-rex. He roars. He shows his big teeth. He licks his lips. He looks hungry, and he heads straight toward us. Hannah said, "Run!" Hannah realized she still had a bone from earlier. I said maybe if you threw the bone, he would run to the bone and we can escape. Hannah did not want to lose the bone. Then we ran into a room and slammed the door. The dinosaur knocked down the door with his tail. When he saw us, we screamed loud!

The dinosaur came but did not try to hurt us. Maybe that dinosaur was nice. Hannah threw the bone. I think all he wanted was his bone. We left to find our class. After, Rex was a fossil again.

My Freaky Leprechaun Adventure By Abigail

After breakfast I went outside to play and before I knew it I'm flat on the ground. I can't believe my eyes. I think I just saw a, a, a leprechaun. No, it can't be true. No! No! No! I get up and try to catch him. When I'm out of breath, I just give up and go to my friend's house.

While I'm walking, I hear something. I turn around and nothing was there. I walked up to the front door and ring the door bell. I wait and my friend Emily opens the door. I say, "Can you play?" She gets her sneakers on and we go outside to play. There's the leprechaun wearing his green top hat. I thought why is he so tall? I look down and realize he's standing on my BFF Emily's head. I scream, "Watch out!" She runs and the leprechaun falls off her head. Emily gets her big brother Billy and her Dad and they chase him into the pool. Emily's Dad falls in. Now it's all up to Billy, Emily, and me. Finally he gets caught in the net. I grab him and put him in a cage, but then my sisters came and opened the cage.

I whisper to my friend, "I think they mistook it for a hamster. Well it is in a hamster cage." Then it bites my sister Madison and he gets away. I say "Get Madison and Haley home so they don't let him go again". Soon Dad comes with the cage. He got out of the cage again. He is as crafty as a fox. The leprechaun is in the cupboards breaking dishes, running water, and getting salt and pepper everywhere. The house looked like a cyclone hit it. Once we caught him again, I call the ship the S.S. Tipton and they take him back to Ireland and we never see him again.

Wow, wow, wow, why didn't I get the gold? Oh come on, curse that leprechaun!

Lucky the Silly Leprechaun By Nakai

One day Tawni, my brother Matt, and I were in the backyard and we were swimming in the pool. We went inside. When I looked back outside, there was a little man with big eyebrows who was wearing all green and a necklace that said Lucky in real gold. He was wearing a big lucky charm on his hat that said Magic. He was smiling very big like he was happy to be there. He was as little as a dwarf. He looked like a leprechaun. We all looked outside, and then opened the door. And in the blink of an eye, he was behind us. Then he said, "What's wrong? Never seen a leprechaun before? Our mouths all dropped open and he said his name was Lucky and he had to be careful because if he had chocolate he would get crazy and silly.

When we went inside he said, "What a big house!" Then he started running super fast. He knocked down the tables, spilled all kinds of spices, and broke the TV. Then he went upstairs, broke our beds, kept on running the sink water until it spilled all over the floor, put glue on the toilet seat, and messed up our clothes. He got them soaking wet, and the worst of all he put toothpaste on our school uniforms.

Then he was out of breath, and we all yelled "Why are you here?" He replied, "Well... when I was counting my shiny gold, the rainbow I lived on disappeared. I caught a glimpse of the rainbow at the house, so I came here but no rainbow. If I don't get back to the rainbow in time I'll lose it forever and be stuck here forever!" We decided we have to help him. Our parents get back tonight and if they see this huge mess we will be grounded but we knew we had to help him. One problem we have though is we don't have leprechaun magic to help him find the rainbow! So now are we supposed to help him? Then we started to think. Then we got an idea. We all said "What if you gave us some of your magic!" Great idea but one problem is I can give leprechauns some magic for a long, long, long time. But with non-leprechauns, I can only give you magic for 10 minutes and then I can't give you any more. "Well, how long will it take to find a rainbow? The leprechaun said, "It might take about five hours." We knew we didn't have five hours and can you find a rainbow under five hours? We might find it if we were very lucky. Then we went outside and Lucky waved some dust that was green and gold and looked like glitter all over us. It made me sneeze so I had to hold my nose. Then I felt weird. I felt like I had magic in me. So I waved my fingers and I had a map of every rainbow. There were at least fifteen. Then Lucky said, "That's my rainbow!" It was called Pixie Dust Ribbon Rainbow. It looked like it was near Main Street and Main Street was right next to us. It was a couple of houses down the road, so we walked to Main Street with only seven minutes to find the rainbow. When we turned around, Lucky said, "That's my rainbow!" Then we saw that already half of the rainbow was gone. So we said goodbye to Lucky. He quickly hopped on the rainbow and waved goodbye. He said thank you. Then the rainbow disappeared. Then we walked back home. We would miss him. When we got back to the house, the house was sparkling clean. We just found out the house was cleaned by leprechaun magic. We saw a note and it said: Dear Friends, thank you for helping me find my rainbow. Yours truly, Lucky

The Magic Hat

By Brianna

It was a beautiful afternoon. The sun was up, the wind was blowing, and the grass was as green as a green apple. Abi and I were walking when we saw a black hat in my beautiful backyard. Abi and I went over to it and found a note on the side of the hat. The note said this black hat was a magic hat. So I ask Abi what we should do with it and she had no idea what to do with it. So I suggested we use it. So we grabbed the hat and brought it inside into my room to keep it. Mom called us to eat supper. After supper, we went back to my room and tried on the hat.

When we tried on the hat, it fit perfectly on both of us. So I said a few magic words and a rabbit hopped out of my room. The rabbit which we named Larry jumped out of the back door. We ran out of the house and got the bunny. Since we did not know how to use the hat, Abi and I asked our Mom but she did not know. Next, we asked our Dad, but he did not know either. So we were stuck with a magic hat, and we don't know how to work the hat. So we asked our Mom what to do with it. Mom said to ask for help. So we asked her who we should ask for help. Mom said to ask a magician.

Abi and I went over to the phone book so we could call a magician. We looked through the phone book and finally we found a magician's number. We called the magician and asked when he could help us. His name was Yatin Zirath. Yatin said we could come over at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow morning. The next morning we went to see the magician. His partner, Michael saw us, so he opened the door for us. Michael did tricks for us. He pulled balloons out of his ears and blew bubbles out of his mouth. It was really funny. So Yatin told us how to use the hat by telling us some magic words to say. Then we had tea and then we went home and used the magic hat.

The Missing Leprechaun
By Luke

It was a nice day. My brother Carl and I were outside in the backyard playing baseball, and we heard a tiny voice. It was a leprechaun who was as tiny as a mouse. “Ahahah!” we screamed!! He had green trousers, with green and white baseball socks, small green shoes, a white vest, and a green baseball cap with a shamrock on it. We asked him if he liked baseball and he said yes. “Do you want to play?” I asked him. He had a small baseball and a bat. We played and I hit a home run. He got mad at us and ran away.

He ran in the street. We had our bikes. He was running toward a rainbow. It had red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, and violet. He disappeared. Where is he? Then we looked at the rainbow and there was a little dot that was green but far away. We followed him over the rainbow. We heard a noise. It was a tiny voice. Then he trapped us. We couldn't get out. It's been a week. We're getting very hungry.

He came in front of us with food, and he threw it at us. We asked why he was mad at us but he ran away. After an hour he came back and he said, “What do you want?” We asked him again why he was mad at us. He said he was mad at us because we won the game. Another day a leprechaun came and asked us why we were in the dungeon. We told him a leprechaun put us here. He went up stairs to look for the keys, and after 30 minutes he came back with the keys. He opened the door. He showed us a rainbow and said go on this, and it will get you home. We went on it, and before we knew it, we were home.

Into the Future

By Sarah

It was a cold winter morning. It was my birthday last night, and I got a time machine for a present. I got my dog and we both stepped in the enormous time machine. It is as big as a school bus. I wished to go to the future. When I stepped out, there were flying cars and there were people flying too. The houses were hovering in the air, but the pools were on the ground. Dogs had jet packs. But my dog and I were not flying, so we found a flying shop. My dog got a jet pack, and I got flying shoes. I met a friend. She helped me put on my dog's jet pack on and my flying shoes. We became best friends. We went to The Future Mall, and it was very fun.

It was 8:30 pm and it was very dark. My mom and dad are probably looking for me. I am scared. There was a strange looking evil alien starting to walk towards us. He was ugly, and he has ten eyes. He was wearing a black coat, and he is carrying a crate. He is bald and has a carrot nose. The alien was trying to take my dog. We went to my friend's house. I looked back and there he was. There was a door but it was locked, so we flew away, but my dog's jet pack did not work, so I grabbed him.

My friend and I went flying back to the shop to fix my dog's jet pack. We asked the owner to fix my dogs jet pack, and he said yes. It was fixed and we flew out. I saw the time machine. I told my friend that I wanted to go back to my real home. She was very sad. I was too. My dog and I stepped into the time machine. I wished to go back home. I ran to my mom and dads room, and I shouted, "I'm home!"

Night in the Museum By Yatin

My class went to a museum. There were many sections in the museum. I saw the skeleton of dinosaurs. They were really big. There was a war figure of George Washington and Pierre Lafont. There was a section of science where I saw many experiments going on and a model of the world. There was a room with 3 doors, and it was dark as a tunnel. I heard a voice, and I was scared so I got out and went with my class.

It was time to go. I went to open the door and there was the whole outer space. Right on the floor there were several handles to move the museum. Thank goodness they were like video game handles. So I started steering and there was the voice again. It was coming out of a black hole. It said we are in a video game and to get to the real earth we have to pass the level. The voice told us that there will be meteors and gigantic rocks coming and I'll have to dodge them. There were power boosters to make you go super fast but be careful you can get smashed by meteors while using the power boosters.

So I started my mission. My teacher said I was really good at dodging meteors and rocks. So I got power boosters going and there I saw a dragon, I had to battle. The good thing was I had rockets to defeat the dragon. When we finally defeated the dragon there stood the earth and the gravity pulled us so strongly, we screamed loudly! "Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhh!!!!!!!!!!!"

The Time of the Dinosaurs

By Ben

I was in my room with Cole. Then we found something under my bed. It was a time machine! We pressed a button and then we went back to the time of the dinosaurs. When we got there we saw plant eating dinosaurs and meat eating dinosaurs. Some were larger than a house and some were as small as a mouse. We saw a giant giganotosaurus looking around for food.

We were looking around and then a caveman named Luke threw a rock at my head. Then I said, "What was that for?" Then I turned around and saw more dinosaurs. When I turned around again we saw a bunch of cavemen. "Ready! Aim! Fire!" Luke said. Then all of the cavemen threw rocks at us. One hit me in the head. Then Cole and I ran and tried to find the time machine. Then we saw it. But when we were about to get it a giant T-Rex stood right in front of it. Then he saw us and bent down trying to eat us. Then we ran and I said to Cole, "Run for your life!" Then we ran for our lives.

When we were running Cole had something in his pocket, it was a rope. Then he threw the rope at a tree. Then Cole said, "Grab the rope." So I did. Then we swung the rope until we got behind the T-Rex. Then I saw something. It was a meteor. Then I said to Cole, "Press the button quickly!" Then Cole pressed the button just before the meteor hit us. Then we went back to our old time. Then I said to Cole, "Do you think our mom's will believe us?" Cole answered, "No way!"